Profiles

Catarino & Gala Becerra

CATARINO AND GALA BECERRA ARE PROUD OWNERS OF AZTEC PRINTING SOLUTIONS, INC.

A successful Native-American owned commercial printing company. They just recently opened their 2nd store in Sells, Az. They started their careers in the printing industry over 46 years ago. Throughout the years they have amassed a wealth of printing knowledge and experience and are fiercely respected for their expertise and master-level printing abilities. Aztec Printing was founded in 1995 with a strong will to succeed, and a work ethic that is second to none. To this day, they both directly oversee every single project that the company takes on, while continuing to strive for excellence in every facet of the printing business.

Catarino and Gala being born and raised in southern Arizona to fifth generation migrant farm working parents, began working in the cotton fields at an early age. It was here in these humble beginnings that they began to develop their strong work ethics and determination. Mr. Becerra has taken these ingredients for success and has instilled them into his business. These eminent characteristics can clearly be seen today.

Today, Aztec Printing Solutions, Inc. proudly serves Native American communities, and government agencies all over the United States. Over the years, Aztec Printing has been awarded First American Entrepreneurship Award, First American Leadership Award, and American Indian Small Business of the Year Award.

Aztec Printing has been in business for over 15 years, and is recognized as an outstanding Native American business. Currently, we are considered to be one of the largest Native American owned printing companies in the southwest. Our hiring and business practices, has always been associated with a Native American first concept. Currently, our company is T.E.R.O certified and 8A certified Native American Business.

Catarino and Gala Becerra have been married for 49 years and have 4 children, 11 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren.
